 Portland Waiters Race
PORTLAND
BASTILLE FESTIVAL
in the Pearl

JULY 10, 2010 at 2 p.m.

Jamison Square Park (11th and NW Johnson)
 Festival Noon-8 p.m., Waiters Race is at 2 p.m.

Be part of this fun Portland tradition and win big cash prizes!

The Rules of the Race

Winners Prizes will be awarded in two divisions: 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place prizes for the waiters' division and the waitresses' division. Winners will be determined based on the water level in the glasses on their tray at the end of the race: the first waiter and waitress to cross the finish line with a dry tray will get first prize. If no one has a dry tray then the winners are the contestants with the least amount of water spilled (an initial water line will be marked on the glasses on each tray at the beginning of the race). Prizes in the two divisions are:

1st prizes $250, 2nd prizes $150, 3rd prizes $100. Checks are written on site.

Course, Attire & Format The course is three laps around Jamison Square Park; attire is long-sleeved or short-sleeved white shirt. No tank tops. Wear black pants and comfortable shoes. You will be given an apron, a napkin to drape over your arm, a bow-tie, tags with your number, a tray with a bottle of water and stable glasses that will be 3/4 full of water. A maximum of 25 participants will be allowed, so register early.

Other Rules : 1) No touching items on the tray, 2) Use only one hand to support the tray, balancing it from underneath, 3) No changing hands once the race has started, 4) No running. This is a speed-walking race. Runners will be disqualified. 5) No unsportsmanlike conduct. No body contact with other racers.
